

Job Description: Brown's Animal Nutrition Specialist

Key Responsibilities :

- Manage current clients and develop new clients in assigned sales area.
- Help Brown's clients achieve their feed and management goals
- Help clients achieve nutrition goals by developing efficient and effective rations
- Help clients achieve health goals by developing efficient and effective rations
- Help clients achieve management and economic goals by providing sound advice

Qualifications:

- Candidate must be self motivated and self directed
- Candidate must possess excellent communications skills
- Experience in area of dairy, poultry, or animal husbandry
- Experience with computers including MS Word, MS Excel, and MS Outlook
- Experience in feed sales, genetics, or animal health sales helpful
- Degree in dairy or animal science or related field an advantage - not required

Benefits :

- Salary and commission commensurate with experience
- Sales car or mileage reimbursement and partial cell phone reimbursement provided
- Benefits package including 401K plan, life insurance, and health insurance
- Tax sheltered flexible spending program for anticipated tax deductible expenses
- Disability pay (non-work related injury) - Workman's Compensation (work related injury)
- Paid vacation and paid holidays
- Laptop computer provided with ration balancing and client contact software loaded
- Work with Brown's nutrition staff to provide state of the art nutritional advice to clients
- Work with Brown's Sales and Marketing staff for sales and marketing support

Application process:

- Immediate opening in Berks, Bucks, Lehigh, Montgomery and Chester County Sales Area
- Interested candidates should call Carl Brown (610-914-1131 (cell) or 610-582-2741 (Mill)
- Submit resumes to carlbrown@brownsfeeds.com
- All responses kept confidential