

Seed Production Supervisor

Location: Jersey Shore, Pennsylvania

Company: Local Seed Company

Industry Sector: Agribusiness

Industry Type: Agronomy Seeds

Career Type: Management

Job Type: Full Time

Minimum Years' Experience Required: 4 years' experience or BS Agricultural Science

Salary: Competitive, DOE

Company Information:

Local Seed Co. was founded as a farmer-focused company to help you maximize the potential of your seed investment. With broad access to diverse germplasm and a long history of producing high quality seed, made possible by bringing together proven resources. Local Seed Company provides growers with products custom crafted for their farms. Local testing confirms products placement and management, because we understand that each field is as unique as each farming practices.

Position Description:

Oversees Local Seed Co seed production at Jersey Shore, PA facility. This includes: Property management, assisting the Production Manager with field layout, performs or assists with planting, nutrient management, pesticide management, coordinating detasseling, field scouting, and managing seed harvest and storage in preparation for seed processing.

Major Responsibilities:

- Supervises all aspects of seed production fields at Jersey Shore PA facility
- Coordinates the production team to prepare and complete growing seed throughout the season; including but not limited to Field preparation, planting, fertilization, irrigation, harvest, seed storage
- Works with Production Manager on LSC production schedules
- Scouts production fields and communicates with Production Manager
- Troubleshoots and assists with any mechanical issues and communicates in a timely manner to the management staff

- Understanding and operating GPS/Autosteer technology and has the ability to troubleshoot that equipment
- Communicates and educates other management staff or employees on processes and technology used
- Adheres to industry quality standards for all products
- Maintains production equipment and property management
- Update equipment as needed with new industry technology in mind
- Stays up to date on production technology and trends
- Stays up to date and enforces PPE
- Updates SDS manual

Qualifications:

Must have 4 years' experience as an equipment operator, with knowledge of facility management or a Bachelor of Science degree in Agricultural Science or related field. This individual must have excellent analytical skills. Must be willing to work extended hours depending on seasonal demands. Must be reliable, flexible and require minimal supervision, self-motivated and work with a hands-on attitude being able to multi-task individually as well as working as part of a team.